

University Administration
Department of Research and Postgraduate
Education
Recruitment Unit

Fees for expert advisers in conjunction with recruitment to teaching and post graduate research positions and associate professorships

The Board of Research has set the following fees for experts hired to advise on the appointment of teachers and post graduate researchers. There is no extra fee (beyond regular salary) for KI employees who serve as expert advisers.

Fee in conjunction with recruitment of senior lecturer / associate professor

- 1 applicant SEK 7,800
- 2-3 applicants SEK 11,700
- 4-6 applicants SEK 15,600
- 7-9 applicants SEK 19,500
- 10 or more applicants SEK 23,400

Or, an expert adviser may be compensated a maximum of week for lost benefits in conjunction with consultation in the recruitment to a professor's position that involves 1-4 applicants, a maximum of two weeks for an appointment involving 5-8 applicants and a maximum of three weeks for an appointment involving 9 or more applicants. Remuneration for lost salary benefits are paid out only to public employees in Sweden. Public employees associated with municipal positions for specialist medical doctors receive remuneration also for salary benefits lost in their municipal position.

For experts advising on the promotion to professor or senior lecturer or the appointment of a guest professor or adjunct on a professor's or associate professor's level, there is a remuneration of SEK 6,500 per assignment.

Fee in conjunction with the recruitment of a post doc, researcher or research assistant

- 1 applicant SEK 5,200
- 2-3 applicants SEK 6,500
- 4-6 applicants SEK 7,800
- 7-9 applicants SEK 9,100
- 10 or more applicants SEK 10,400

The Board of Research has established the following fees for expert advisors in conjunction with the consideration of candidates for docent positions. There is no extra remuneration (beyond regular salary) for KI employees who serve as expert advisers.

Remuneration for consideration of docentship

The remuneration for external experts in conjunction with advice on a docentship is SEK 5,000 per assignment.