Revised course evaluation questions to be used from 2019

The Course and programme committee has in December decided on some minor changes to the course evaluation questions used for evaluating doctoral courses. The changes apply to some minor adjustments of wording for a better compliance between English and Swedish, but also a clarification of question 14. The wording has so far been “For me, the course was adequately challenging”, but is now changed to “From my perspective the workload was reasonable in relation to the number of credits”.

The course evaluation questions and routines for evaluating courses can be found on https://ki.se/en/staff/course-evaluation-and-analysis-of-doctoral-courses.

Moving course material from Pingpong to Canvas

In November we sent an inquiry to course organisers and doctoral programmes to find out the extent and complexity of course material on Pingpong that needs to be moved to Canvas.

The Course and Programme Committee has decided to give some financial support to the course organisers who stated that they have extensive and complex material online. We will contact the course organisers concerned with more information.

New requisition form from 2019

Please make sure to download the latest version of the requisition form when you send us a requisition of funding granted by the Course and Programme Committee. As a result of the organisational changes the form will be updated with the current decision-making bodies, from January 1st.

Requisitions submitted before 2018-12-31 should use the old (now current) form, while requisitions submitted from January should use the new form.

New Chairman for the Course and Programme Committee 2019

Following the organisational changes starting from 2019, we are welcoming Erika Franzén, vice-chair of the Committee for Doctoral Education, as new chairperson of the Course and Programme Committee from next year. We thank Pro-Dean Lennart Nilsson for his excellent work as chairperson in recent years.

The current members of the committee will continue another six months in order to ensure continuity.

Thank you all for your good work during 2018!

We wish you happy and relaxing holidays and a healthy new year!

Kind regards,

The Course and programme committee through Anna Gustafsson, Administrative Officer.
